Brief Report

Narration means you're telling a story from a certain viewpoint, and there is usually a reason for the telling. All have characters, setting, a climax, and most importantly, a plot.

The plot is the focus of the story and is usually revealed chronologically, but there are sometimes flash-forwards and flashbacks. If you're looking to write a personal narrative essay, to get you started.

When writing a narrative essay, remember to:

- Include sensory and emotional details, so the reader will experience the story, not just read about it.
- Allow the story to support the point you're making, and make reference to that point in the first sentence.
- Write in the first or third person.
