System Overview

The Paaristhithikam Micro-web portal is part of the DoECC's Green Office initiative and will serve as a digital hub for the Directorate allowing collaboration of institutions, program coordinator and the general public.

Paaristhithikam micro-portal ensures effective, efficient, and better coordination and integration of the Paaristhithikam program by digitizing documentation and report generation. It provides a platform with which the current processes managed in Paaristhithikam starting from registration to report submission can be done online. The system improves the monitoring of events and programs of the Paaristhithikam across the State.

Institutions can register online and the application gets verified and approved by DoECC. Once approved, a one-time verification mail is sent to the provided email address of the program coordinator, with the link to create an account using a username and password. (An institution can apply for multiple Paaristhithikam programs with each unique program coordinator).

Once the account is created, the account features include the profile of the institution, proposed programs, option to generate reports and financial documents based on the milestones etc.

The public interface of the portal can be viewed by clicking on the link provided below

<http://doecc.owrench.com>

User Manual Overview

This user manual guides users on how to use various features in the system.

Stage 1 - Register

The institutions can register on the web portal with the following:

- Details of the Institution
- Details of Program coordinator
- Details of the Programs Proposed
- Upload attachments (Institution affiliation certificate, Affidavit by Head of the Institution)
- Confirm & Submit

After submission, an email will be sent by the system to the corresponding program coordinator's E- mail ID provided in the registration form.

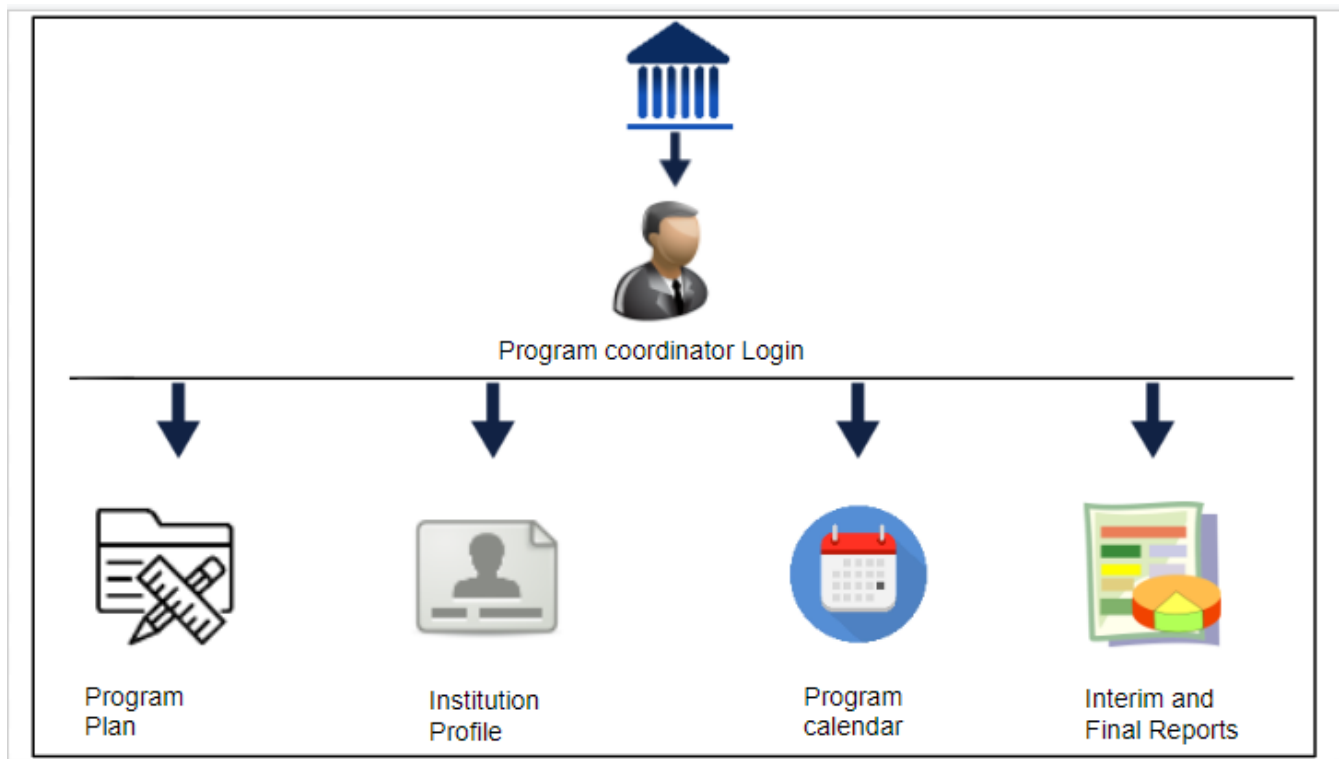

NOTE: If not found in the inbox, kindly go through the spam/promotions

Stage 2 - Account Creation

An institution can apply for multiple Paaristhithikam programs with unique program coordinators. Corresponding to each application, the account is created with the unique program coordinator's Email ID. The Account has features such as a program plan, option to generate reports and financial documents based on the milestones. All the proposed programs at the time of the registration are displayed with the option- complete the program, completed programs will be listed on monthly updates.

A calendar representation of the whole program is available in the program calendar in reference to the proposed date of planned programs. Features for creation and submission of interim and final reports including financial documents are also available.

A brief introduction to the features:-
